

SONRISE EASTER CONVENTION KAWERAU 2023

Pack the caravan/campervan/motorhome/tent and head to KONNECT Training and Event Centre Kawerau this Easter for a relaxing and spiritually uplifting long weekend of fellowship, Bible teaching, relaxation, testimony and worship.

Where? KONNECT Training and Event Centre

371 River Road, Kawerau

When? Easter Weekend

Thursday Evening 6th April – Midday Monday 10th April 2022

What? Relaxation

In a quiet open setting, fellowship with likeminded believers, bask in Kawerau's hot pools for free, soak up the Word of God, praise and worship the Lord, walk in the fresh air of Kawerau's bush tracks, or drink coffee at one of Kawerau's cafés.

Who? Geoff Smith

Respected Bible teacher who has been gifted by God to unpack the Word of God in a way that relates to everyone. Each morning he will open the book of Revelation to see what the Lord Jesus had to say to the Seven Churches of Asia and how it relates to us in the 21st century.

Special Features for 2023

Special Remembrance dinner Friday Evening, Tongs Singers, A Night at the Movies and Dan the Puppet Man with live performance and update on Puppet Vision.

Cost?

$40 per person Conference fee (incl. camp fee, morning tea and supper and event expenses). Plus, $40 per motorhome, caravan, 5thwheeler, bus or tent site fee for those camping on site. Children under 18 free. You will need to register using the registration form.

Accommodation?

Konnect now has a large lodge with rooms and facilities available (including kitchen) for those wishing to stay on site. For further details bookings and payments, please contact Konnect Event Centre separately Ph 07 282 3084 or email admin@konnect.org.nz. However, you will still need to register & pay Sunrise for the conference fees. For those coming with motorhome, caravan, 5thwheeler or bus there is plenty of room to park so long as they are self-contained.

Meals?

Sorry, facilities are such that meals cannot be provided and campers are expected to self-cater. However, Friday evening meal & Sunday BBQ lunch will be provided free as part of the registration fee. Morning and afternoon tea and evening supper will be provided free to campers and day visitors alike. People can share their meals together at the rear of the auditorium if they so desire.

Camp sites?

While there is ample room for parking, there is limited power for medical reasons only. Motorhome, caravan, bus, 5thwheeler or tents will need to be self-sufficient. On site toilets are available along with fresh town supply water. There are two dump sites available in the town and information on their location will be provided on arrival.

Day Visitors?

Are welcome but will need to provide their own picnic meals (except Sunday lunch). Good picnic facilities are available on site along with tea and coffee. Alternatively, there is café/diner called Town and Country Food in the township which is open all weekend and has a great variety of food available. Costs for casual day visitors is by donation. However, if you are attending full weekend and accommodated off site you will need to pay the conference fee. Please register using the registration form.

Pets?

Pets are permitted but must be kept on a leash at all times.

Supplies?

Kawerau has a well-stocked New World Supermarket which meets most needs. However, any specialist items should be purchased prior to arrival. Shops are closed on Friday & Sunday.

Rubbish and Recycling?

Rubbish and Recycling bins will be available on site.

About Us?

This convention originated from an initiative by Caravaners of Greerton Bible Church, in association with Kawerau Life Konnect Charitable Trust and in fellowship with Greerton Bible Church and Kawerau Bible Chapel. It is open to anyone who wishes to join us for a wholesome weekend of celebrating our Lord Jesus Christ
